

The Lion Ghost

Revenge is not sweet, but bitter for Rosey when she tries to get back at her little brother, Jake. In the end, the truth sets her free. Beautifully illustrated in a Victorian motif, this childrens picture book (ages 3-7) artfully builds suspense when the younger brother, Jake, loses his temper and resorts to physical contact with this sister, Rosey. Instead of seeking conflict resolution help from her parents, she takes matters into her own hands by hiding Lion, her brothers favorite lovey. Her pangs of guilt get the best of her and she confesses to her cat napping.
